OWOSSO, FRIDAY, DEC. 22, 1882

Entered at the Post Office in Owosso, Mich., for transmission through the mails as second class mail matter.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

LOCAL NEWS

The subject of Rev. T. S. Leonard's discourse next Sunday morning will be "The Two Advents."

Special Christmas services will be held in the Baptist church next Sunday morning. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker, who live about two miles south of this city were bereaved by the loss of their youngest child, aged 7 months, from inflammation of the lungs Dec. 15th. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday by Rev. T. S. Leonard, of the Baptist church.

Special bargains in boots and shoes at the People's Bazaar.

The sermon, to the temperance ladies of Owosso, delivered on Sunday evening by Rev. Mr. Reed, of the M. E. church; from Mark 16: 3, "Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre," was able, earnest and interesting, and we regret that more of the true temperance workers of our city could not have been present. But those who were there enjoyed a real literary treat, replete with facts of startling importance to the public generally.

A large line of Ladies and Gents Gold and Silver Watches, will be found at T. O. Christian's, cheap for cash.

The subject of Rev. Mr. Wilson's sermon Sunday evening was the necessity of revealed religion as a guide, as illustrated in the life of the Patriarch Job.

The solemn rite of baptism by immersion was administered to two candidates, at the Baptist church on Sunday evening.

Mr. E. J. Karr, of Detroit, Special Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company is in this city looking after the interests of his company, and arranging to pay the joint insurance which they had on the lives of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dawes, amounting we are informed to $2,000, which, by the provisions of the policy, is due and payable to the survivor.

Bar pins by the gross, a great selection at W. F. Guile's.

The very best fur caps for $1.80, at the People's Bazaar.

An adjourned meeting of Oriental Encampment, No. 59, I. O. O. F., for the election of officers for the ensuing term, will be held this Friday evening, at the close of the session of Owosso lodge. Let all the Patriarchs be present.

Clergymen, to whom THE TIMES is sent, will please accept the same with the compliments of the publisher, accompanied by a request that, on postal notes, they will send notes of marriages, deaths and other events that may occur in their parishes.

The lecture, Tuesday evening on Egypt, is spoken of as being exceedingly well written, delivered in a pleasing manner and very instructive. We much regret that we were unable to be present and hear Mr. Jacobs.

Miss Willie Wright returned Tuesday evening from an extended visit with friends in Chicago.

Would you see a beautiful display of nice things for a Christmas dinner, just glance at the windows in the store of Lawrence & Banister.

The sales at Duff's last Saturday are said to have about $1,000. The largest days' work ever done in a retail grocery in Owosso we venture to guess.

We regret to learn that failing health has compelled Miss Helen Manning to return to the Sanitarium at Eaton Rapids.

There is to be a special convocation of Owosso chapter R. A. M. this evening. The many friends of Mr. J. T. Moxley, of West Bay City, have been pleased to receive a call from him this week.

We hear that Dr. F. B. Smith is confined to his home from throat and asthma difficulties. His many friends wish for his speedy recovery.

Alderman H. L. Lewis has been confined to his house for the past two weeks, suffering from throat and lung troubles. However, we are pleased to learn that he is improving, and will soon be on hand to greet his 1,001 friends as of yore.

The Union Mattress Company have moved into their new and better arranged quarters in the Moses' block, on Exchange street west.

Messrs. Burek & Sherman have moved their cigar manufactory from Exchange street, to the rooms over Black's store on Washington street.

A meeting of Owosso Council, No. 8, R. T. of T., for the election of officers for the ensuing term, will be held in Good Templars' hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 27th, at half past seven o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested.

We are in the midst of the holiday season. Don't fail to note the Christmas advertisements, to see to it that your friends are made happy, that the Christmas trees at the various churches are bountifully provided for, and that so far as you can make it so, all may enjoy a merry, merry Christmas.

Mrs. Mary M. Robinson has sold her residence at the corner of King and Water streets to Mrs. Eliza Shelton who resides near the village of Byron, but who will soon move to Owosso and with her son, occupy the place she has purchased.

The closing examinations of the fall term at the Union school are being held this week. We understand that the term has been a very successful one and that in most cases the examinations show a high standard of scholarship.

Mrs. Mary M. Robinson has purchased the Rodgers' place on Williams street east, between Hickory and Saginaw streets and will soon occupy the premises.

The greatest bargains ever offered before in gloves and mittens at the People's Bazaar.

Now is the time to select your holiday presents and have them laid away, while the stock is full and the best selections can be made. W. F. Guile has them in every style and variety in his line, at prices that cannot be beaten.

The winter term of the Owosso public schools will open on Tuesday, January 2.

The Bazaar held last Friday and Saturday by the ladies of the Congregational church was a decided success. The display of fancy goods manufactured by the ladies was fine and the sales large and at paying prices. The refreshment stand was fairly though not liberally patronized. The receipts at the door were $37 and the total receipts not far from $300. The large silk quilt fell to Miss Ella Day, the telegraph operator at the J. L. & S. depot and the smaller one to E. A. Todd Jr., our popular City Clerk.

We sell winter caps cheaper than any house in the county at the People's Bazaar. My motto is quick sales, small profits. T. O. CHRISTIAN.

James McMillan, of Detroit, one of the wealthy men of Michigan, has through Hon. James F. Joy, purchased the celebrated Shakespearean library of Hon. E. H. Thompson, of Flint, and will present it to the Michigan University. This is said to be the most complete and largest private Shakespearean collection in the world.

The January Atlantic contains the first of the series of papers entitled "An After Breakfast Talk," by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, the inimitable author of "The Autocrat of the Breakfast table," published in the early numbers of that magazine.

A beautiful line of Ladies and Gents Chains, Sleeve Buttons, Bracelets and Scar Pins will be found at T. O. CHRISTIAN'S.

The old State House at Lansing was destroyed by fire on Saturday. It had been the scene of many a hard fought political battle. Within its walls, Cass, Chandler and Bingham, the three men whose names do most to honor Michigan, were there elected Senators. The noble record Michigan made in the Rebellion was provided for by appropriate legislation in its chambers by men many of whom still live to honor the Peninsula state. But the scene of their labors has passed away in the fire, but that fire cannot annihilate the record of the glorious deeds these men did for liberty, equality, education, fraternity and nationality within its walls. These will live forever.

The services at the M. E. church next Sunday will be appropriate to the Christmas season. On Monday evening there will be a Christmas tree for the benefit of the Sunday school scholars. Friends desiring to make use of the tree for the distribution of presents, will please leave their gifts at the Chapel early Monday morning. It is the design to make this gathering pleasant and by it to interest the friends still more in the Sunday school work. It is hoped, therefore, that the attendance will be large, the gifts liberal and the scholars in the Sunday school shown that the work in which they are engaged meets the warm approval of their parents and friends.

A lie manufactured out of whole cloth—the statement in the last issue of the Shiawassee American that the editor of THE TIMES is an aspirant for the post-office at Owosso. We wonder if Owen's head isn't yet sore over his little defeat at the Republican Congressional Convention at Saginaw last August.

We see an intimation in the Hastings Banner that the Charlotte Leader is down on the candidacy of the editor of THE TIMES for Sergeant at arms of the Senate. Well, the Leader was down on us as a candidate for State Senator in the Eaton and Barry district, but the people gave us 1,000 majority all the same.

The next quarterly meeting of the Maple River Temperance Association will be held at noon on Sunday, January 14, 1883. Programme will be published soon.

The semi-annual election of officers in Owosso Lodge, No. 88, I. O. O. F., will occur on Friday evening, the 29th inst. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

A rain storm Wednesday night practically destroyed the fine sleighing.

The Plainwell Independent warns its Grange readers not to sign papers at the solicitation of agents. The advice is timely.

We note with peculiar pleasure that our long time friend and former partner in the Hastings Banner, Geo. H. Brooks, has been transferred from the postal service between Chicago and Cleveland to the route between Detroit, Jackson and Grand Rapids.

Committees buying for Christmas trees are invited to call at Dimmick & Son's Fair. They will get special prices.

Our ice men are preparing to put up a fine supply of ice and present indications are that the crop will be a good one.

The thermometer was 9 degrees below zero, in Owosso, Monday morning.

Dimmick & Son have a splendid assortment of yankee notions for the Christmas season. Do not fail to call and see them.

The Shiawassee Journal has just completed its second year and under the editorial management of our young friend, Ward Ingersoll, is prospering finely. It is by far the best paper published in Cornua, is outspoken for Republican principles and has no sore spots. We wish it the most unbounded prosperity.

We learn with deep regret of the death, at Cornua, on Wednesday, of Mrs. Geo. W. Goodell, mother of ex-Senator James M. Goodell, a lady loved and respected by all who knew her.

Charlie Towne, of Lansing, "took in" the bazaar Saturday evening.

Mr. Charlie Turner has given up his position at Eaton Rapids and returned to this city.

H. W. Dowling, of Laingsburg, has recently purchased of Richardson & Reed, Jackson, a pair of Chester White pigs.

Andy Kelso is busy making up his cabinet.

At the session of Owosso Lodge, No. 81, F. A. M., held at their Hall on Wednesday evening, the following brother were elected officers for the ensuing year, viz:

Thomas Neelan,	W. M.
Calvin S. Gilbert,	S. W.
Geo. H. Bedford,	J. W.
Geo. R. Black,	Treas.
Benj. F. Taylor,	Sec'y.
Chas. H. Cossitt,	S. D.
Frank Neelan,	J. D.
John V. Miller,	Tyler.
Rev. B. F. Matrau,	Chaplin.

The installation will take place St. John's day, Dec. 27th, at 7 in the evening.

The following programme of music will be rendered at the Baptist church next Sunday morning, by the choir under the leadership of Mr. G. S. Beardale:

Organ Voluntary.
Anthem:—Glory be to God.	Leslie
Anthem:—Hark the Herald Angels Sing.	Martin
Hymn:—Calm on the Listening Ear of Night.	Kingley
Anthem:—Glory be to God in the Highest.	Tenny.
Anthem:—Sing, O Heavens!	Emerson

Married.

CARPENTER—ESCOTT—At the Baptist parsonage, Dec. 20, 1882, By Rev. T. S. Leonard, Lewis H. Carpenter, of Flushing, to Laura L. Escott, of Caledonia.

BARRY—WILLIS—At the Baptist parsonage, by Rev. T. S. Leonard, Dec. 21, Mr. Fred L. Barry, of Perry, to Miss Jennie Willis, of Caledonia.

The Shalton Colored Concert Co., composed of ten talented artists with the world-famous comedian, Sam Lucas, heading the card, will appear at Salisbury Hall on the 17th of January. Watch the date and notice the card.

Died.

At his late residence on King street, in Owosso city, of paralysis, William J. Wiswold, aged about 60 years.

Mr. Wiswold was one of the early settlers in Owosso, having come here with Daniel Ball in 1836 and resided here since. He was a man noted for his integrity and sobriety; had been a son of Temperance and a Good Templar; was a soldier in the war of the Rebellion, being a private in Company B. 4th Michigan Cavalry and had recently been an applicant for a pension, for which he should have applied years ago, and which, if application had been made, would undoubtedly have been long since granted, as it was certainly merited.

His funeral is being attended this (Friday) afternoon from the Congregational church and his remains will be deposited beside those of his children in the cemetery near the residence of Hon. John W. Dewey, in Owosso township.

Debilitated persons, and sufferers from wasteful diseases such as consumption, scrofula, kidney affections, will be greatly benefited by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

A large stock of fine Casters, Cake Baskets, Card Receivers, Call Bells, Silver Vases, Jewell Holders, Napkin Rings, Pickle Casters, Fruit and Butter Knives you will find at Dimmick & Son's.

Photograph and Autograph album in great variety at Loring's.

My stock of solid and silver plated ware is complete. Please call and examine before buying. T. O. CHRISTIAN.

A merry, merry Christmas to all our friends and patrons.

There will be the usual Christmas service at Christ Church at 10:30 A. M., on Monday, with the celebration of the Holy Communion.

In the evening there will be a Christmas tree for the benefit of the Sunday school children and a distribution of presents.

Bishop Harris is expected to make an official visit to Christ church early in January.

Look, before you buy, at the fine Albums at Dimmick & Son's Fair.

Dr. Mead, from Fowlerville, has located in Owosso to engage in the manufacture of medicine for the cure of epilepsy.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound strengthens the stomach and kidneys and aids digestion.

Copas is up on his ear. This being the Christmas season, and he being a good natured Englishman who honors the Church of England, he must of necessity make a show, hence he has placed on exhibition at his market as fine a line of Christmas meats, from the historic goose to the well fatted bullock, as can be seen in the state and his window is worth a special inspection. Go and see for yourself if it is not.

Another large invoice of Ladies' and Misses' Solid Rings, Neck Chains and Lace Pins just received direct from the factory, at Dimmick & Son's.

There will be a Christmas tree for the benefit of the scholars of the Sunday school at the Congregational church on Monday evening. The parents and friends of the children are cordially invited.

Copas bought in four days this week, Dec. 18-21, 445 hogs that weighed 86,898 pounds, for which he paid $6,443.95.

Revitalizing the blood is absolutely necessary for the cure of general debility, weakness, lassitude, &c. The best enricher of the blood is Brown's Iron Bitters.

This Friday morning, Copas is unloading a second car load of hogs bought at Ovid. We guess Clinton county farmers better bring their hogs to Owosso.

THE TIMES demands that Owosso shall keep up with the other cities of the state in all that pertains to a higher social life and to that end we suggest that the pleasing custom inaugurated years ago at Washington, and which has since spread all over the country, for the ladies to keep open house for their friends on New Year's day, be generally observed in our city on the coming New Years. It will be found to be a pleasant social custom and one that may do much to cultivate a friendly courtesy in the community. To aid the enterprise we will publish the names and residences of any who will entertain, in our paper next week.

"Men condemn in others what they practice themselves." Those who practice the use of Kidney-Wort never condemn its use by others, but commend it to all affected with piles, dyspepsia, constipation, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of kidneys, liver and bowels.

At His Post.

Mr. T. R. Bailey, who in connection with Messrs. Yeats & Osborn is to engage in the business of manufacturing machinery at the Yeats & Osborn foundry, has arrived with his son and pattern maker and says he has come to stay. His appearance is that of a man who means business. He told us yesterday that he had positive orders for $400 worth of machinery to be delivered during the month of January and for one machine to be delivered next week, with several other orders under advisement. Since arriving here he has had letters, asking how soon machinery could be furnished, from California and Texas and that he expected early orders from both places. He has the control of several valuable patents for machines that are in general use and for which there is a large and constantly increasing demand. He will, also, manufacture the Bailey gauge lathe, of which his father was the patentee and which is extensively used in all parts of the country. It is to be hoped the work of building up this new enterprise may receive the cordial endorsement of our citizens and that the proprietors may be able to make it the success they expect it will be.
